'Bringing faith and education together'

Our value this term is COURAGE

Be strong, be courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the lord your God will be with you wherever you go.

[Joshua 1:9]

What a final week it has been!

Starting Sunday evening with our school represented at the Churches Together Singalong@Christmas competition achieving a fantastic 2nd place from the schools selected from Kent! Of course, the celebrations were slightly overshadowed later by the downfall of snow causing a rather late return home for our singers.

Monday bought the tricky situation of snow which is something that makes this time of year quite special. The children have really enjoyed spending time playing in the snow and building snowmen. I hope you've seen some of their photos on dojo.

As you are aware we had Ofsted visit school this week. It was a positive experience and we look forward to sharing the report when we receive it late January.

But despite this we have enjoyed some magical moments this week. Thank you to all of you who braved the snowy, icy conditions and clapped, laughed and sang along with the wonderful Oak Class Christmas performance, the KS1 Nativity as well as last night the beautiful Christingle service supported by our local Mayor.

There have been other celebrations too – such as our Golden Table winners from the PTA Christmas fair enjoying a specially decorated table and waitress service and a wonderful spread for our afternoon tea winners with myself and Mr Jones!

This morning Chris Spring, along with our school musicians led a festive singalong worship. This really got us in the festive spirit. I hope you got to see some of the videos via school story on Class Dojo, especially wishing you all a very Merry Christmas!

After school pick up tonight, I have reminded the staff that they need a well-deserved break. Their dojos will be switched off until we return in the new year. School starts again on Wednesday 4th January with gates opening at 8.40am. If you need to make contact with the school regarding any safeguarding concerns between now and that date you will need to email admin@st-georges-wrotham.kent.sch.uk and we will make every effort to get back in touch with you within 48hours.

At the end of this newsletter are some important dates for next term so for now all that remains is to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
