'Bringing faith and education together'

'Letting your light shine' (Matthew 5:16)

Our value this term is FORGIVENESS

Be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.
[Ephesians 4:32]

What a busy week!

Thank you to all of our parents that came to consultations this week. Taking time to meet and talk with your child's teacher is so important and key in ensuring that together, we support the children in doing the very best they can. The spring term consultations are the last formal ones of the year and provide an excellent insight into predicting end of year achievements, that are shared with you, before they receive their end of year reports in July.

I wasn't quite sure we could top World Book Day from last week but I was blown away on Tuesday night by our Love2Dance performers on stage at The Stag Theatre in Sevenoaks! These children, under the guidance of their choreographer extraordinaire Miss Gower, performed two spell binding dance routines. The first was to 'Men In Black' theme tune followed up in the second act by 'Thriller'. Every child deserved the applause and cheers from a packed theatre – an experience I hope they remember for a very long time!

vision, this week that honour goes to...

MISS GOWER!

Thank you for the amazing choreography, rehearsals, enthusiasm and energy you have given to our Love2Dance performers this year.

Your support helped each of them 'let their light shine'

And as a result YOU 'let your light shine!'
